THE CITY SEOUL

SEOUL, the capital of South Korea, is a vibrant and energetic city, offering endless opportunities for discovery and enjoyment.

Being a 'city of villages', it seems that every subway stop adds a whole new dimension to Seoul – you can experience the fashion madness of Gangnam, the alternative music scene in Hongdae, and the diverse shopping streets of Myeongdong.

As one of Asia's leading cultural sites, Seoul has five ancient palaces and five UNESCO World Heritage sites that you must pay a visit to. Come and lose yourself in hundreds of museums, performance centres and galleries. Bargain hard at markets and underground shopping centres, or treat yourself to the delights of the world's leading fashion boutiques.

This city that never sleeps becomes a whole new world at night, where you can party away at fashionable nightclubs and trendy bars, or relax with friends and have chicken and beer with friends at the Han River.

Seoul has something for everyone, regardless of whether you are here just for a week or for a few months. Whatever the time of year, an almost endless selection of entertainment awaits you.

THE CITY BUSAN

Busan, South Korea's second largest city, is a beautiful city famed for its stunning beaches and lively food scene with fresh, delicious seafood.

Much more relaxed than the capital, Busan exudes a holiday-resort-city vibe, offering a completely different experience from Seoul. A paradise for nature lovers, Busan is surrounded by stunning natural landscapes, with a beautiful coastline and ocean views to the south as well as scenic mountains and cliffs to the north.

Just minutes from the bustling downtown area, you can lounge on one of Asia's finest beaches, explore the wilds of Korea's national parks, find inner peace meditating in a temple, or enjoy the fresh seafood at Korea's largest fish market.

There is also no shortage when it comes to Busan's thriving nightlife. Dance your night away at some of the best nightclubs at Gwangalli Beach, or if you prefer, unwind to some jazz at Haeundae Beach.

With its laid-back vibe, Busan is an ideal study location, that has an affordable cost of living and a welcoming temperate climate throughout the year.

If you wish to enjoy a relaxing and peaceful resort lifestyle whilst experiencing one of Korea's most buzzing cities, Busan is the place to be.

KUBO RYUSUKE FROM JAPAN

My experience at Lexis Korea was fantastic. On the first day, I took a placement test with a Korean teacher to make sure I was placed in the right level. The level-up tests and weekly assessments helped me track my progress and kept me motivated to learn Korean every day. What I enjoyed most were the cultural activities—they were both fun and educational!

KELLY FROM AUSTRALIA

The Busan campus is quickly establishing itself as one of the leading Korean language institutes in the country. The teachers are friendly, caring, knowledgeable and always create a positive environment conducive to learning.

SAVANNAH FROM SWITZERLAND

My teacher made the class very fun and had a lot of patience with us. She made me want to interact in class and also pay attention. She would introduce a wide variety of topics as well as vocabulary. Classes were never boring. Our mini studio manager was very friendly, willing to help and even take us out for activities. The support system in Lexis is very good and I felt well taken care of. Thank you so much for a great time!
